Powell Prisoners All in Winchester Jail

In accordance with an order entered by Circuit Judge W. R. Shackelford, directing that the prisoners confined in the jail at Stanton, Powell county, be transferred to the Clark County jail, Jailer J. S. Mullins Friday night received 11 prisoners.

One of the men received is H. W. Meadows, awaiting trial on a charge of killing Dewey Townsend. The remaining ten men already have been sentenced on various charges including bootlegging, malicious shooting and wounding.

The ten men serving sentences and their sentence follows:

Shelby Yeary, $100 and 40 days; Robert Norman, $150 and 30 days; Wiley Colter, $50 and 40 days; James Gilly, $50 and 40 days; Gabe Fugate, $300 and 40 days; Shelby Willoughby, $200 and 60 days; Ed Young, $25 and 14 days; Ed Yeary, $75 and 19 days; Charles Rogers, $100 and 50 days, and Ova Helton, $50 and 30 days.

In entering the order for the transfer of the prisoners Judge Shackelford said that both from the report of the grand jury and personal inspection he had decided the Powell county jail was inadequate to insure the holding of the prisoners without their being able to effect an escape and he not only directed that the prisoners brought here Friday night be transferred, but specified that all prisoners in the future be brought to the Clark county jail, this jail being designated as the closest adequate jail for their accommodation.—Winchester Sun.

The Stanton Jail Delivery

From the Winchester Sun clipping in this issue it seems that Judge Shackelford has about made a complete jail delivery of the Powell county bastile without turning the boys loose either. Instead of paying the home jailor for the prisoners board the county will now have to pay the Clark county jailor. The Times is not criticising Judge Shackelford for moving the prisoners, for we do not know the conditions prompting his actions. We are satisfied some of them need to be safely kept. Still we believe that nobody can keep them better in Powell county than Bill Howell or Grover Cleveland Palmer, Powell's new jailor after January 1st.

Running Cut Price Sale

Merchant R. L. Stamper was here Friday from Bowen and had some posters printed advertising a great cut price sale for his large store at Bowen. It certainly pays to advertise because it pays the purchasers to find where the bargains in merchandise are located.

Cuts Foot

Roy Ware severely cut his foot Tuesday while cutting wood. He will be laid up for a few days.

Shale Land Deals

Whether or not there is anything in the shale projects, it seems that when a company takes an option on any of the shale lands they always finally take it and pay for it. The Clay City shale lands seem to stand in favor with them, and we are told it is the "best by test." In some sweet future day, the shale folk will break loose and startle the people round about here with operations. But not, of course, until after all the good shale is cornered.

Combs Burned Out

John M. Combs had his dwelling to burn at Nada 9:30 o'clock one night last week and Mr. Combs and a son were very badly burned. The total contents were also destroyed. This property was insured with the local agency of Tracy and Howell, of this city, for $1,200. Mr. Tracy went up the next day after the fire and adjusted the claim in full.

Hatful of New Laws

State Superintendent of schools Colvin, will appeal to the coming session of the Legislature for a hatful of new laws which he imagines will make the schools better. It can't be done. School teaching is a gift, and learning is a gift that the Legislature cannot improve upon.

Now a Traveler

Geo. A. Zuern, who moved to Louisville two months ago, was here Friday representing one of Louisville's leading wholesale hat concerns. Mr. Zuern has many friends in Clay City who are well wishers for him and his estimable lady who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McKinney.

Moving Family Here

V. T. Chatman has moved his family from Torrent this week into the Day property across from Mrs. Moore's hotel. We are indeed glad to have Mr. Chatman with us. He comes so highly recommended both as a citizen and a business man.

Good Hog Killing Days

The first days of the week were excellent hog killing days, and many of them were slaughtered in the county. Much uneasiness is felt for the meat killed on former days on account of the wet weather and warm days following.

McKinney Boy Better

James McKinney who was taken to Winchester hospital a few weeks ago with a severe attack of typhoid fever has been moved to private rooms in that city and he is now getting along real nicely.

Takes Horses to Florida

O. L. Daniel left Monday with a car load of horses for Florida. This is probably the first car of horses to leave Powell county for that state.

Trying to Prejudice Us

The railroads are issuing bulletins and sending the Times one trying to convince us that they have done much to reduce rates, and that the present, we know, outrageous, rates are wholly justifiable by operators. We are worse than from Missouri, they can't show us how commodities like coal oil must pay more to ship it from Louisville than the oil costs there. The only thing the railroads seem to us to want to reduce is employee wages. The Times shall stand by the employees. "No reduction rates, no reduction wages." Both should be reduced by law.

The Sheriff's Salary

In some counties the Sheriff gets more than twice the pay for his services than the Governor of the state gets for his. This is in wealthy counties where the sheriffs collect a large tax and the per cent. fixed by law amounts often to more than $20,000 per year. The Legislature this winter will be asked to fix a law limiting the amount the Sheriff may receive for his services at $5,000. The constitution provides for the enactment of such a law. No change can be made to affect the Sheriff's salary in Powell.

Too Late for Last Week

The contribution sent to this office last week relative to the Stanton Presbyterian Church was received too late to be inserted then, so we publish the article this week. We regret very much that we could not print it last week, but this the editor could not help. This article shows the new church to be one of the strongest in the county from point of stability and membership.

An Interesting Gathering

Great interest is being taken in the disarmament conference. In fact it is almost strong enough to crowd the Arbuckle case off the front page.

Building operations in the East reported about normal. Almost as many residences as garages are now being built.

Ford wants to buy scrapped warships. "And they shall beat their warships into flivvers."

Gradually Opening Up

Reports coming from the oil fields are to the effect that operations there are gradually opening up. It is expected that by Spring if oil retains its present level, business in the fields will be back to conditions before the war.

School Entertainment Success

Picture Puzzle Game

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a large advertisement announcing a picture puzzle game arranged by the Louisville Herald, which will, no doubt, prove very interesting for our readers, and especially for the little folks.

The contest consists in ascertaining how many objects or articles in the picture start with the letter "C" and prizes are awarded to those finding the largest number. Our readers have already won liberal prizes as a result of competing in similar contests and there is no reason why some of the awards in this new picture puzzle game should not come to residents of this vicinity. Anyhow, there is nothing like trying.

Strayed Dog

Strayed from my home, Monday, December 5, a large Collie dog. Color light yellow with white on his neck. Will be glad for any information that would lead to his recovery.

Presbyterian Church at Stanton

In June 1889, Rev. Joe Hopper and J. M. Evans, of the West Lexington Presbytery, under an arrangement made by Dr. E. O. Guerrant with Mrs. M. E. Law and Jno. D. Atkinson and others, of Stanton, came here and held a series of meetings, covering perhaps two weeks. Prior to that time Mr. Atkinson was the only person in Powell County who had ever been connected with the Presbyterian church. During the meeting about 15 persons became members and the church was organized with Mr. O. C. Law and Jno. D. Atkinson as elders. Rev. Hopper revisited the congregation for a few times and held services in the Christian church, and during the following year, the Rev. R. A. Irvin, then located at Frenchburg, became pastor of the church at Stanton, and in the year 1892 moved to Stanton, where he resided a few years, afterwards moving to Clay City, but he remained the pastor of the Stanton church until his death in 1909.

The old Presbyterian church was built at Stanton in the year 1892, under contract price of $500.00, but after its completion there was a debt of $73.00 over it, which was afterwards settled by Mr. Atkinson through the assistance of Hon. W. M. Beckner, of Winchester (now dead) who procured a donation from the Presbyterians at that place to help pay this debt.

After the United Presbyterian church through its Board, had established Stanton College, the Board of Church Extension took over from the West Lexington Presbytery the church properties both at Stanton and Clay City, and now that the congregation at Stanton has grown to a membership of 146, and find that the old church is not adequate to accommodate the congregation and its Sabbath School which has an average attendance around 100, it has erected a splendid new building across the street from the old site sufficient to meet its needs, and will hold the dedication service on December 4th, 1921, at which three services will be held during the day to which everyone interested in church work are cordially invited. The membership is as follows:

J. D. Atkinson, Mrs. Lucy Atkinson, Virgil Atkinson, Clarence Atkinson, Marion Atkinson, James Atkinson, Nancy Atkinson, William Atkinson, Robert Atkinson, John D. Atkinson, Jr., Mrs. Clarence Atkinson, Marion Atkinson Jr., Edgar Arnett, Clarence Arnett, Robert Baker, Mrs. Robert Baker, Frank Baker, Alice Baker, Lawrence Baker, Eugene Baker, Ernest Baker, Pearl Baker, Mrs. Francis Baker, Kathryn Baker, Mrs. Kate Bohannan, Betty Boone, Beatrice Blount, Nelson Blount, Mrs. Sarah Blackburn, Neva Boiles, Myrtle Lois Clair, Shirley Campbell, Mrs. Lida Daniels, Alice Daniels, Anna Daniels Fulkes, Mary Daniels, George Derickson, Herbert Derickson, Maude Dennis, Chester Dennis, J. ## How Many Objects In This Picture Begin With the Letter 'C'?

The above picture contains a number of visible objects beginning with the letter "C." Just take a good look at it—there are all sorts of "C" words. Nothing is hidden; you don't have to turn the picture upside down. Make a list of all the visible objects in the picture, the names of which begin with the letter "C." Have the whole family join in—see who can find the most. Fifteen splendid cash prizes will be awarded for the fifteen best lists submitted. The answer having the largest and nearest correct list of objects shown in the picture starting with the letter "C" will be awarded first prize; second best, second prize, etc.

Everybody Join In

The Louisville HERALD announces a most interesting and amusing puzzle game—a puzzle that's "different" and a game in which everyone from grandpa and grandma to the little folks can take part. It's really not a puzzle at all, because all of the objects have been made perfectly plain with no attempt to disguise them; it's just a plain test of your skill. Your ability to find "C" words determines the prize you win. Get the folks in your family busy. Give each of them pencil and paper and see who finds the most. We know you'll enjoy it, because everyone loves a puzzle.

Open To All—Costs Nothing To Try

The HERALD invites YOU, and your family, to join in this fascinating puzzle game. It doesn't make a speck of difference whether you are 6 or 60 years old. Here's your chance to have some dandy fun! Wait until you have tried our puzzle and you will say "GREAT!" The most fun I've had in a long, long time." Write down the "C" words you have in mind RIGHT NOW! Then study the picture for MORE and when your list is made up send it to The Louisville HERALD and try for the big cash prizes.

Observe These Rules

First—Any man, woman, boy or girl who is not in the employ of The Louisville HERALD, or a member of an employee's family, may submit an answer. It costs nothing to try.

Second—All answers must be mailed by December 27, 1921, to Myles W. Neilson, Picture Puzzle Manager, Louisville HERALD.

Third—Answers must be written on one side of the paper only and each "C" word numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, etc., as listed. Write your full name and address in the upper right-hand corner of each sheet. If you desire to write anything else, use a separate sheet.

Fourth—Only words found in the English dictionary will be counted. Do not use hyphenated, compound or obsolete words. Use either singular or plural. Where the singular is used to denote a "C" word, the plural can not be counted as another word, and vice versa.

Fifth—Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once. However, any part of an object may also be named.

Sixth—The answer having the largest and nearest correct list of visible objects shown in the picture beginning with the letter "C" will be awarded first prize. etc. Neatness, style or handwriting will have no bearing on deciding the winners.

Seventh—Participants may co-operate in answering the puzzle, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household; nor will prizes be awarded to more than one of any group outside of the family.

Eighth—In the event of a tie for any prize offered, equal amounts will be awarded.

Ninth—Subscriptions, both new and renewal, by mail, carrier or news agent, will be accepted. However, in qualifying for the $1,000 and other maximum awards, at least one new subscription must be sent in. A new subscriber is one who has not been receiving The HERALD by carrier or mail since November 29.

Tenth—All new subscriptions will be carefully verified by the Puzzle Manager. Participants marking old subscriptions as new will forfeit the credit of such subscriptions in qualifying for the maximum awards.

Eleventh—All answers will receive the same consideration, regardless of whether or not subscriptions are sent in.

Twelfth—Three Louisville business men, having connection with The HERALD, will be selected to act as judges and decide the winners. Participants agree to accept the decision of these judges as final and conclusive.

Thirteenth—The judges will meet immediately following the close of the Picture Puzzle Game and answer will be published in The HERALD just as quickly thereafter as possible.
